

I write to express my opposition to the FCC's proposal give Low Power FM stations priority over current FM translator services. K-LOVE is a Christian radio station I listen to and support financially in Sioux Falls, SD. It's a great station and is hard to put into words what a wonderful community asset. The FCC's proposal could potentially force K-LOVE and other stations like it off the air.